On SA

I am a forensic expert and my qualification is B. Sc. (honours) and M. Sc. In forensic science alongwith the practical training on the subject of forensic science. I have given opinion in more than 150 cases related to handwriting and finger print. In this case, I have scientifically examined following sets of signatures appearing of cheque in question and bail bond and my definite opinion is that the signature appearing on cheque in question had not been written by the person who signed admittedly aforesaid bail bond. My report containing 7 pages is Ex. DW1/1.

XXXXXX By Sh. Ashutosh Pandey, counsel for complainant.

I alongwith with my college namely Faizal Huda had prepared aforesaid report Ex. DW1/1. We deposed on behalf of associate of counsel for accused in about 4-5 cases. I have been in the field of handwriting study for last 2 ½ years. I did not take anything apart from my professional fee from accused or his counsel. Photo graphs which I have taken in the court and related documents are attached with my report Ex. DW1/1. There is no fix period of time over which the tone and tenor of handwriting of a person changes as it varies from person to person. I purchased a software namely Adobe photoshop alongwith computer from company concerned which is used for studying various handwriting and signatures. I alongwith Faizal Huda had studied the admitted and disputed signatures of accused with the help of aforesaid software and thereafter we prepared report Ex. DW1/1.
