RW1 Statement of Sh. Syed Fazal Huda, S/o Sh. S.A Huda R/o-H-42, Abul Fazal Enclave, Jamia Nagar, Okhla, Delhi (Recalled for cross examination in continuation of examination dated 29.11.12)

XXX by Sh. Vipin Chaudhary, Counsel for the Petitioner.

My qualifications degrees and certificates are Ex RW1/P1 (Colly). I do not know if I had given any adverse report against the party engaging me. Vol. I only give my opinion on the subject assigned to me and I do not go into the question if it suits the party engaging me or not. I had given all kinds of report both positive and negative. It is wrong to suggest that I have always given reports and opinions favouring the party engaging me. My opinion has been relied in numerous number of cases by the courts wherein I have given my opinion and filed my reports.

I had compared the questions signatures with the admitted signatures in this case in my report Ex RW1/1 and CD Ex RW1/2. It is correct that I had referred the principles laid by Sh. B.L Saxena in his book on Hand Writing Opinions, who had been a renowned author and handwriting expert himself. The said book has now stopped publishing but I have a copy of the same with me and I can produce the same in the court on the next date.

XXX deferred as the counsel for the petitioner asks the witness to produce the aforesaid book authored by Sh. B.L Saxena.
